TEAM BUILDING, EDUCATION & MOTIVATION

Aiken is full of opportunities to impress clients and surprise co-workers. Our professional event planners can coordinate unique experiences specific to your goals and needs.

GREEN MEETING & CATERING PRACTICES

We carry our “green” philosophy into our meetings and catered events. The Willcox has earned the highest sustainability certification through the South Carolina Green Hospitality Association.

ACCOMMODATIONS

The 28 guestrooms and suites at The Willcox and our Chef’s Cottage are comfortable retreats luxuriously appointed, each with a desk, charging station, complimentary wi-fi and in-room fitness options. Most have cracking fireplaces and each has its own character.

Our exclusive Vacation Rentals provide additional accommodation options while maintaining The Willcox experience in some of Aiken’s most treasured historic estates.

SALON & SPA

Enhance your experience with Willcox comfort. After a busy day of activities, your guests can unwind in the sanctuary of our spa. Rejuvenate with a facial; plan a spa day with your friends and colleagues; or calm both body and mind with a blissful massage.

AIRPORTS

- 5 minutes from Aiken Municipal Airport
- 20 minutes from Augusta Regional Airport
- 45 minutes from Columbia Metropolitan Airport
- 2 hours from Charlotte Douglas International Airport
- 2 hours from Charleston International Airport
- 2.5 hours from Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport

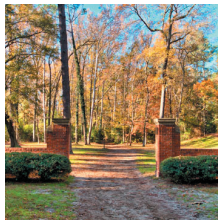

LOCAL ACTIVITIES

People here enjoy just about every outdoor kind of fun short of mountain climbing. And you have to start with horses. For more than 100 years, Aiken has been the training ground for all the great equestrian sports.

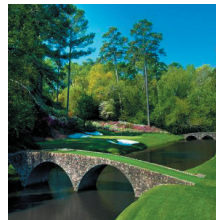

But if your sport doesn't require a bucket of oats, the golf courses are world class. And for those who enjoy nature and walking, the area offers plenty of public parks, and tranquil gardens. For true outdoor junkies, hunting, fishing, boating and water sports abound at nearby lakes and state parks, and numerous paths provide endless hours of hiking and biking.

Feel free to tour our downtown, too. It's home to historic landmarks, mom-and-pop shops, a mix of restaurants, art galleries, museums, boutiques, specialty shops, antiques and a performing arts theatre.

HIKING, PARKS

- Hitchcock Woods
- Silver Bluff Audobon Center and Sanctuary
- Aiken State Park
- Hopelands Gardens
- Carolina Bay Nature Reserve

GOLF

Golf is not just a pastime in Aiken; it's part of the city's soul. Anyone who has swung a club in competition or just for pleasure's sake will feel the thrill of golf at its finest.

EQUESTRIAN

- Polo
- Fox Hunts
- Horse Shows
- Steeplechase
- Eventing
- Aiken Trials
- Driving
- Riding Lessons

HUNTING

Hunting, particularly dove, quail, turkey and deer are a large part of Aiken's culture. Many Willcox guests enjoy excellent seasonal hunting in beautiful green fields and natural southern pine forests.

BOATING/FISHING

There are eight boat landings in Aiken County - on the South Fork Edisto River, Savannah River, and Langley Pond. Another good resource is Silver Bluff Audobon Center & Sanctuary.

YOGA

If you've come to escape, we've got the solution to help tune out the distractions. We can arrange Yoga, Pilates, Tai chi, Qigong and Chiogalates classes through Just Breathe Studio, the perfect place to decompress.

SHOPPING

For those just discovering the heart of Aiken, it's one of those special experiences Southerners call a "sercic," a pleasant surprise that seems planned with them in mind.

MUSEUMS

Aiken is host to two wonderful museums - The Aiken County Historical Museum and the Aiken Thoroughbred Racing Hall of Fame.

THEATRE/CONCERTS

The Aiken Convocation Center and the Aiken Community Playhouse provide a variety of entertainment year-round. During the summer, you can also enjoy the Summer Concerts Series at Hopelands Gardens.

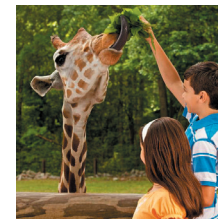

ANTIQUES

Aiken becomes a regional fine art and antiques destination when the Aiken Center For the Arts hosts its annual Antique Show and Sale. This event brings antique hunters from all over the Southeast.

HISTORIC TOUR

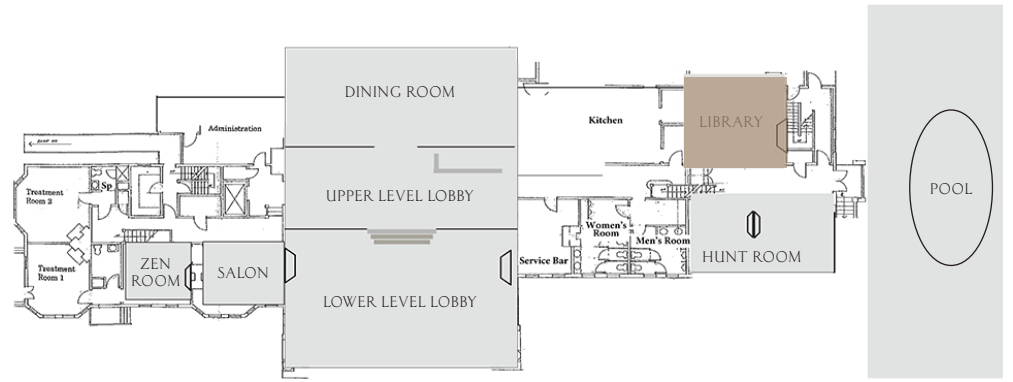

Enjoy a guided historic tour of Aiken sponsored by the Aiken Chamber of Commerce that can be customized to suit specific needs. Reservations are recommended. Tours are Saturdays at 10am.

KIDS

The Aiken County Library and Ruth Patrick Science Education Center are great spots to visit within Aiken, and if you can travel a bit, Adventure Children's Museum and Riverbanks Zoo are a short drive away.

THE LIBRARY

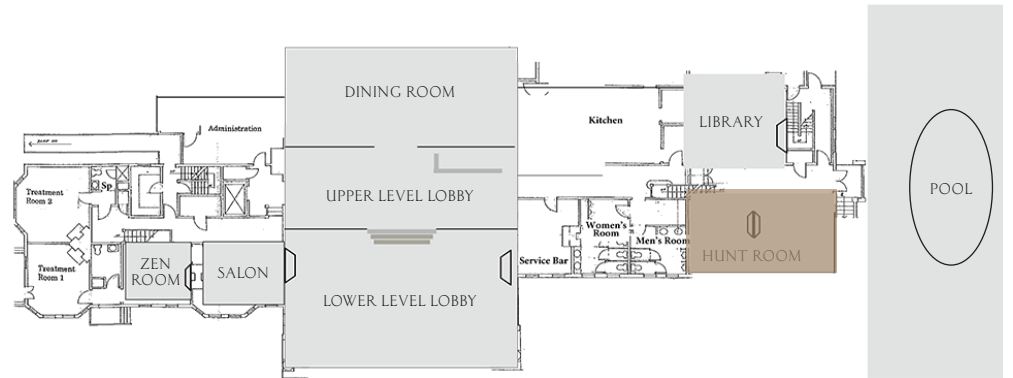

The Library, lined with books and warmed by a fireplace, has a British country house feel with subtly striped green wallpaper and plaid silk curtains.

- 770 square feet
- Accommodates up to 56 guests
- Fireplace

HUNT ROOM

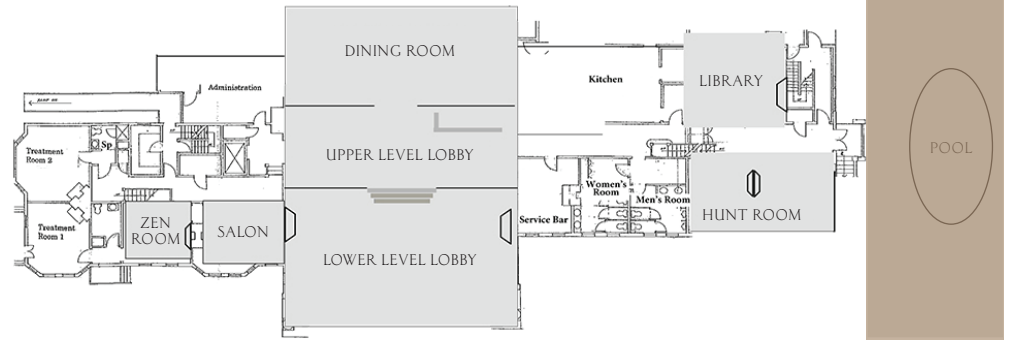

The original Hunt Room has the feel of an Old English club with a unique double-sided walk around fireplace and rich wood paneled walls.

- 460 square feet
- Accommodates up to 32 guests
- Double-sided fireplace
- Two 50 inch flat screen televisions - One above each fireplace

THE POOL

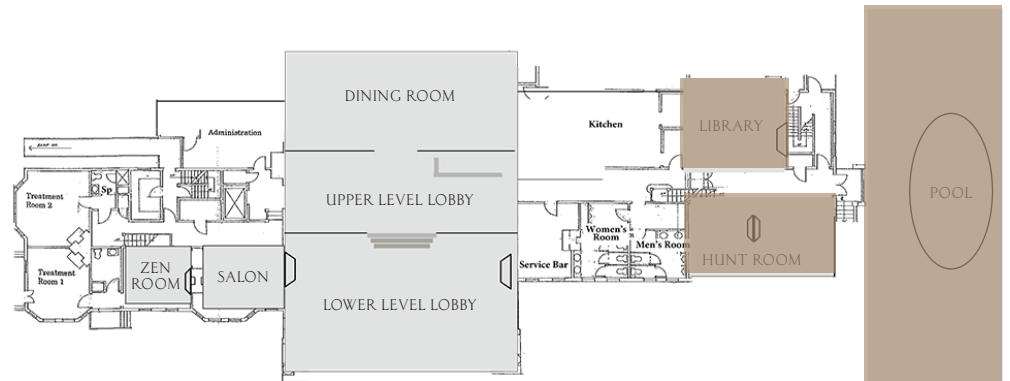

The lovely landscaped pool area, with flowing waterfall and luscious native plants, glows in the evening with strings of beautiful lights.

- 1,790 square feet
- Accommodates up to 100 guests

THE LIBRARY, HUNT ROOM & POOL

The combination of the two indoor spaces and the outdoor pool area gives guests the feeling of being enveloped in the warmth of a grand, private home.

- Accommodates up to 175 guests

THE ROOSEVELT SUITE

The Roosevelt Suite, the largest suite in the hotel with a 58 foot balcony, is a favorite for groups wishing more privacy. The living room and dining room can be set up for meetings, cocktails and dinner parties.

- 1104 square feet
- Accommodates up to 15 guests
- Fireplace
- 58 foot balcony spanning the front of the hotel

HOTEL BUYOUT

A full buyout makes the hotel your very own for the sole enjoyment of you and your guests. Exclusively yours includes 23 guest rooms and suites and use of all hotels facilities.
